

Institutional best practices

BEST PRACTICE 1: DEPARTMENTAL SPECIAL LECTURES: Most of the departments of the college have organized special lectures from outside institutions by inviting eminent resource persons. They are invited with the purpose of advancement of student learning and motivate them for higher studies. The departmental teachers arranged the whole programme.

BEST PRACTICE 2: NSS ACITIVIES: Sukanta Mahavidyalaya has three active NSS units with the leadership of three proficient NSS program officers. All the three unites engage in several social and cultural activities inside and outside the college throughout the year. NSS arranged tree plantation in the new campus area of the college. It also took some developmental strategies for adopted three nearby villages in Jalpaiguri district, West Bengal.
