This annual report contains the details of various academic and administrative activities carried out by the college for the session 2019-20. These activities include classes, examinations, seminars, lectures, NCC activities, NSS activities, IQAC activities, sports, cultural activities etc. A brief sketch of such activities along with some other valuable information carried out during this year have been presented below.

Teaching- Learning and Evaluations

In this year, Semester-II of CBCS and UG (1+1+1) system was running simultaneously like the second half of the previous year. Every department conducted the class tests for different papers for honours course (B.A./ B.Sc.) students and a test examination was conducted for general course students for the session 2019-2020. The results of this examination were prepared by a tabulation sub-committee and published to the eligible students for appearing in the university examination. The eligible students filled up the university examination form for the final exam. The B.A./B.Sc. (1+1+1) part-I & II Honours examination by University of North Bengal was started on 18th July, 2019 for part I and part II and completed 10.08.2019. The B.A./B.Sc. (1+1+1) part-I and part-II general examination by University of North Bengal was started on 13th to 21rd August 2019.

The classes of the CBCS (semester-I) and Part II and III were started on 02/07/2019. In this system the teaching-learning process consists of Lecture-Tutorial-Practical (L-T-P) mode. The evaluation process is divided in two parts namely, internal assessment and end semester university examination. For honours course students the internal evaluation was done through class tests by the department. For the programme course students internal assessment was done in various ways namely, assignments, project, seminar, class test etc. In the below a table is presented to summarise all activities regarding teaching evaluation. CBCS SEM I examination started on 3rd December 2019 to 13th Decemebr, 2019.
