Date: 03.01.2020

Time: whole Day

Venue of the activity: Sukna Army Cantonement

Number of students involved: 40 students from 3rd year

Short Report of the Activity: The Department of English, Sukanta Mahavidyalaya, organized a one day community outreach programme on 3rd January 2020 at Sukna Army Camp located a few k.m away from Siliguri City to enlighten and awaken the 3rd year students of the Department about the nature, activities and contribution of the Army to the idea of India. 40 students from 3rd year of this Department joined the outreach programme. The Journey for the Army Camp started in the early morning and the bus reached the destination at 10 a.m. The army people received the students and showed them several memorable things related to 1971 war. Later the Army representative delivered a lecture before the students.

The community outreach programme enriched the faculty of knowledge and understanding of the target students instilling a sense of patriotism among them. The outreach programme enabled them a first-hand experience about Army life and activities through some sensory experiences. The students became fascinated and motivated by the interaction with the Army representatives and the war memorials. The 3rd year students participants were overjoyed by the camp experience and interaction with the army personnel.
