REPORT ON CELEBRATION OF 'ANTORJATIK BHASHA DIBASH' (21.02.2024)

On February 21, 2024, the event "Ah Mori Ekush" was celebrated on the college premises at the grand stage adjacent to the Sukanta statue. After a vibrant procession and a walk around the area, the main program commenced. The ceremony began with floral tributes to the Sukanta statue and portraits of the martyrs of the Language Movement by the program's president, Principal Dr. Nilanshu Shekhar Das, the president of the college's governing body and MLA of Dhupguri, Dr. Nirmal Chandra Roy, the distinguished guest and renowned poet Smt. Anindita Gupta Roy, Professor Swati Das Chowdhury, and other teachers, staff, and students.

The inaugural song, "Moder Gorob Moder Asha, Aamari Bangla Bhasha" (Our pride, our hope, our beloved Bengali language), marked the start of the main event. Students from the second and fourth semesters actively participated. Through various songs, poems, and dance performances, the veneration of the mother tongue resonated throughout the program.

The linguistic diversity of North Bengal was showcased through recitations and poetry readings in Rajbanshi, Nepali, Mech, Rabha, and Sadri languages. The need for deeper affection towards one's own language was eloquently highlighted in the powerful speech of poet Anindita Gupta Roy, who also won everyone's hearts with her poetry recitation.

The address by the honorable MLA, Dr. Nirmal Chandra Roy, was equally captivating. Finally, the speech by the esteemed president, Principal Dr. Nilanshu Shekhar Das, vividly illuminated the historical significance and multifaceted importance of the day.

REPORT ON 164TH CELEBRATION OF RABINDRA JANMA JAYANTI (RABI PRADAKSHIN).17TH MAY 2024

Rabindranath Tagore's 164th birth anniversary was celebrated in the Rabindra Hall under the theme "Rabi Pradakshina", with the title "Madhur Tomar Shesh Je Na Pai" (Your sweetness, endless and unattainable). The event commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the college principal and program president, Dr. Nilanshu Shekhar Das.

The inaugural Rabindra Sangeet, "Bhalobese Sokhi Nibhrate Jatone Amar Namti Likho" (Beloved friend, quietly write my name), set the tone for the event. The program was led by Ms. Rittika Roy, a fourth-semester student from the History Honours department. The relevance of Rabindranath's thoughts in contemporary society was highlighted in an enlightening address by the honorable principal.

The keynote speech, "Bhasha Chintak Rabindranath" (Rabindranath as a Language Thinker), delivered by the esteemed guest, Dr. Prasad Roy, Head of the Bengali Department at Jalpaiguri Ananda Chandra College, was intellectually enriching.

The program became a joyous celebration with active participation from students and faculty through speeches, poetry, and songs. Students from the second and fourth semesters presented a musical narrative titled "Rabindra Ritusanghar" (Rabindranath's Ode to the Seasons).

The event reached a new dimension with a captivating performance of Rabindra Sangeet by the renowned music artist and senior professor of the History Department, Swati Das Chowdhury.
