Infrastructure and physical facilities for teaching- learning viz., classrooms, laboratories, computing equipment etc.

This institution is only 42 years old. Since its establishment in the year 1981, the college has been grown up significantly. This institution has a well-developed building of 3221 sq. meters with 3 blocks dedicated to teaching-learning. It is equipped with facilities like a central library with a collection of more than 26000 books, and 5 renowned print journals as well e-books and e-journals accessing facilities from the subscription UGC-INFLIBNET's NLIST Consortium. Apart from this, different laboratories and technologically enabled classrooms for teaching to achieve academic excellence. There are 19 departments running in the college along with 2 study Centers under the Directorate of Distance Education namely, NSOU DDE (both UG and PG courses) and RBU DDE (only PG course). The college also offers Honours Course in BBA under a self-financed scheme. The institution has a number of rooms including office, classes and laboratories (80 in numbers) and computers (129 in numbers), although the figures shown are not adequate. The institution has a separate building for science students where separate classrooms are there for different honors subjects. In the Arts stream, the same rooms are used for different courses. The college needs more classrooms to accommodate the growing demand of the students. Laboratories are equipped with necessary instruments, chemicals, and software as per the needs of the students according to the current syllabus. Support facilities include a well-maintained canteen, sports ground, sports room, and medicinal plants around the playground. Some classes are scheduled for maximum utilization of available physical infrastructure which includes a smart board, overhead projector, and sound system. The remaining classrooms are used for teaching in chalk and talk mode. The library is equipped with Integrated Library Management System. Koha software is being used to deal with the students' demand for books.

“22 se Shrabon” Celebration (08/08/23)

The Cultural Committee of Sukanta Mahavidyalaya, observed “22 Se Shrabon” on 08/08/23 at Rabindra Kakhya. Prof. Partha Sarathi Chakraborty inaugurated the program by garlanding the portrait of world poet Rabindranath Tagore. He delivered a short speech on contribution of Rabindranath Tagore on Literature, art and culture. After that, the students recited poems written by Tagore. Next, Rabindra Sangeet was performed by the students of the college.

43rd College Foundation Day Celebration (25/09/2023)

The Cultural Committee of Sukanta Mahavidyalaya celebrated 43rd Foundation of the college on 25th September, 2023 at Rabindra Kakshya. The committee organized a cultural event which included cultural performances such as songs, dance and poetry recitation. The honorable principal Dr. Nilangshu Sekhar Das inaugurated the program by giving a short speech on the history of the foundation of Sukanta Mahavidyalaya which started its journey from 1981. The land donors of the college were invited and were felicitated for their noble act. The special attraction of the event was the felicitation program of the students who performed exceptional in the final semester. Almost fifteen students from both Science and Arts department were awarded with a Certificate and a book. The program ended with the vote of thanks by Dr. Amar Chandra Roy, the convener of Cultural Committee.

Inauguration of the Newly Constructed Main Entrance of Sukanta Mahavidyalaya, January 6, 2024

The inauguration ceremony of the newly constructed main entrance of Sukanta Mahavidyalaya was organized under the supervision of the Cultural Sub-committee. The event took place on January 6 at 11:30 AM, with the ribbon-cutting done by the honorable MLA of Dhupguri and president of the governing body, Dr. Nirmal Chandra Roy, alongside the esteemed principal, Dr. Nilanshu Shekhar Das. The program began with an inaugural song performed by the students of the college. Speeches were delivered by the honorable principal and chairperson of the event, Dr. Nilanshu Shekhar Das, MLA Dr. Nirmal Chandra Roy, and governing body member Md. Sadiq Ali, among others. All the speakers echoed their hopes and aspirations for the college's bright future. The event concluded with the principal expressing optimism for many more achievements and fulfilling expectations in the days ahead.

CELEBRATION OF 'ANTORJATIK BHASA DIBASH' (21.02.2024)

On February 21, 2024, the event "Ah Mori Ekush" was celebrated on the college premises at the grand stage adjacent to the Sukanta statue. After a vibrant procession and a walk around the area, the main program commenced. The ceremony began with floral tributes to the Sukanta statue and portraits of the martyrs of the Language Movement by the program's president, Principal Dr. Nilanshu Shekhar Das, the president of the college's governing body and MLA of Dhupguri, Dr. Nirmal Chandra Roy, the distinguished guest and renowned poet Smt. Anindita Gupta Roy, Professor Swati Das Chowdhury, and other teachers, staff, and students.

The inaugural song, "Moder Gorob Moder Asha, Aamari Bangla Bhasha" (Our pride, our hope, our beloved Bengali language), marked the start of the main event. Students from the second and fourth semesters actively participated. Through various songs, poems, and dance performances, the veneration of the mother tongue resonated throughout the program.

The linguistic diversity of North Bengal was showcased through recitations and poetry readings in Rajbanshi, Nepali, Mech, Rabha, and Sadri languages. The need for deeper affection towards one's own language was eloquently highlighted in the powerful speech of poet Anindita Gupta Roy, who also won everyone's hearts with her poetry recitation.

The address by the honorable MLA, Dr. Nirmal Chandra Roy, was equally captivating. Finally, the speech by the esteemed president, Principal Dr. Nilanshu Shekhar Das, vividly illuminated the historical significance and multifaceted importance of the day.

164TH CELEBRATION OF RABINDRA JANMA JAYANTI (RABI PRADAKSHIN).17TH MAY 2024

Rabindranath Tagore's 164th birth anniversary was celebrated in the Rabindra Hall under the theme "Rabi Pradakshina", with the title "Madhur Tomar Shesh Je Na Pai" (Your sweetness, endless and unattainable). The event commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the college principal and program president, Dr. Nilanshu Shekhar Das.

The inaugural Rabindra Sangeet, "Bhalobese Sokhi Nibhrite Jatone Amar Namti Likho" (Beloved friend, quietly write my name), set the tone for the event. The program was led by Ms. Rittika Roy, a fourth-semester student from the History Honours department. The relevance of Rabindranath's thoughts in contemporary society was highlighted in an enlightening address by the honorable principal.

The keynote speech, "Bhasha Chintak Rabindranath" (Rabindranath as a Language Thinker), delivered by the esteemed guest, Dr. Prasad Roy, Head of the Bengali Department at Jalpaiguri Ananda Chandra College, was intellectually enriching.

The program became a joyous celebration with active participation from students and faculty through speeches, poetry, and songs. Students from the second and fourth semesters presented a musical narrative titled "Rabindra Ritusanghar" (Rabindranath's Ode to the Seasons).

The event reached a new dimension with a captivating performance of Rabindra Sangeet by the renowned music artist and senior professor of the History Department, Swati Das Chowdhury.
